FATHER MALONE OVERCOME.

HE BREAKS DOWN AT THE FUNERAL OF FATHER HOPKINS.

UNABLE TO FINISH HIS EULOGY OF HIS ASSISTANT-FATHER DRISCOLL CELEBRATES THE SOLEMN HIGH MASS OF REQUIEM.

The funeral of the Rev. Edward J. Hopkins, who was first assistant to Father Sylvester Malone, at the Church of Saints Peter and Paul, was held yesterday morning. Father Hopkins had served the church for three years, and was much beloved by the parishioners. The whole congregation behaved yesterday as if they were mourners at the funeral of a relative. Father Malone was to deliver a eulogy on his assistant. As he advanced to the top of the altar steps it was seen that he was shaken by strong emotion. He began speaking in a broken voice, and before many sentences had been uttered he broke down and sobbed. He recovered himself by a strong effort and continued for a while in a voice which was not audible to the congregation, and then he broke down completely and left the sanctuary. He was almost prostrated, his address being unfinished.

The grief of Father Malone touched a sympathetic chord in the congregation, and many of the women of the church wept almost hysterically. Two women fainted and were carried out into the open air by their friends. Several others were almost overcome before the service was over, and were assisted out of the church.

CELEBRATING HER 102D BIRTHDAY.

MRS. HARRIET B. TOWNSEND, OF ROSLYN, LONG ISLAND, HOLDS A FAMILY REUNION.

Roslyn, Long Island, Nov. 26.—The annual reunion of the Townsend family was held here to-day, when Mrs. Harriet Byron Townsend, the head of the family, celebrated her 102d birthday at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Alexander Kilpatrick, in Main-st. Her numerous descendants helped her. They include two children, sixteen grandchildren, and great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren. Mrs. Townsend is believed to be the oldest woman on Long Island. She was born in Lattinstown, and was the daughter of John Seaman, a prominent resident of Oyster Bay. She was twice married, her first husband being Abraham Hicks, of East Norwich. For more than fifty years Mrs. Townsend lived with her second husband, Walter B. Townsend, in Glen Cove, and when Mr. Townsend died, at the age of ninety-two years, about nine years ago, Mrs. Townsend came here to live.

KILLED HIMSELF IN A BATHROOM.

DRINK AND DOMESTIC DIFFICULTIES LEAD TO SUICIDE—THE MAN LEAVES A LETTER FOR HIS WIFE.

John Stewart, who was thirty-one years old, and manager for Julius Dreyfus, dealer in furs at No. 89 Broadway, Manhattan, killed himself at 9 o'clock yesterday morning in the bathroom of the boarding-house at No. 142 Columbia Heights. He lived there with his wife and children. His income was fairly good, but it is said that his habits had become irregular. Recently he and his wife have occupied different rooms.

A week before Thanksgiving Day Stewart came home drunk. He quarreled with his wife and threatened Kate Ryan, a servant, and Charles Bates, the halibut. Policeman Dooley was called in, and it was only with difficulty that he could prevent the halibut from preferring charges against Stewart. The man continued to drink, and for several days had been making himself troublesome to the boarders. When he came out of his room yesterday morning he had Kate Ryan good morning in a cheery manner and entered the bathroom. A minute or so later a pistol shot was heard, and the Rev. Dr. Bound entered the bathroom and found Stewart lying on the floor with a bullet wound over the right eye. Death was apparently instantaneous. He left the following letter for his wife:

My Dear Hattie: I told you I might retain Tompkins in utmost confidence, and now you have betrayed it, and then to think you and Mrs. T. lying to me about the money to go to New York. May God forgive you, as I hope to be forgiven, for the burden is too heavy for me. Please forgive me for the long time I have done you wrong, and please have once in a while a kindly thought for one who has always striven to make you a good living. But now all my prospects seem to have failed, and I am always tried to be good and kind to you. Please and take care of the little ones, who I love so dearly, and don't get married again too soon. I can't eat, sleep or anything, so I must go, and then you blame me for being drunk when I am so sick I can hardly walk. You will find money in your bureau drawer.

You had best wire for Voorhees, Dreyfus and mamma. Also your Uncle George. Yours, with love, but lots of trouble, J. STEWART.

FIRST SERVICES IN A NEW EDIFICE.

THE PEOPLE OF IMMANUEL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH TO OCCUPY THEIR NEW SPIRITUAL HOME.

Services will be held in the new chapel of the Immanuel Congregational Church, Decatur-st., near Patchen-ave., this morning for the first time. The building, which is 60 by 90 feet, has been in process of construction for some months. A handsome organ has been placed in the chapel. Immanuel Church was organized a year ago by the consolidation of the Rochester Avenue and the Patchen Avenue Congregational Churches. The Rev. Dr. E. P. Ingraham is the pastor.

BLESSED BY HER SICK MOTHER.

POLICE CAPTAIN SHORT'S DAUGHTER MARRIED TO JEREMIAH CAREY.

Miss Mamie Irene Short, daughter of Police Captain Martin Short, was married to Jeremiah Carey on Wednesday night in the Church of St. Thomas Aquinas. The wedding was quiet, owing to the illness of the bride's mother. Mrs. Short was taken ill two weeks ago, when elaborate arrangements were being made for the wedding. Mrs. Short did not desire any postponement of the wedding, and before the ceremony the bride and bridegroom visited the sickroom of Mrs. Short and spent the day with the invalid. Miss Maggie Short, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and John E. Carey, her next man, was best man. Father Dulane performed the ceremony.

A SIXTY-POUND SEA TURTLE.

William Gray, jr., and Clayton Culver captured a sea turtle weighing sixty pounds at Water Mill, Long Island, several days ago.

ELLIS TO BE BURIED TO-DAY.

The body of George H. Ellis, the yeoman of the United States cruiser Brooklyn, the only man killed in the sea fight off Santiago, will be buried in Evergreen Cemetery this afternoon. The funeral will be held at the home of his brother-in-law, No. 16 Greene-ave., at 1:30 o'clock.

CLARA EMILY BEADLE.

Miss Clara Emily Beadle died at her home, No. 87 South Hamilton-st., on Monday, November 22, after a long and tedious illness. She was the niece of Dr. E. E. Beadle, who for many years lived in the same home now in possession of the Tower family. Miss Beadle, though of a retiring nature, had many friends, and her death was a loss to those in sickness, cheering them by her gifts of flowers or delicacies. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon, the services being conducted by Dr. A. P. Van Gieson. Burial was in Rural Cemetery.

AN OPERATION FOR LOCKJAW.

TETANUS ANTITOXIN INJECTED—SAID TO BE THE THIRD OPERATION OF THE KIND IN THE WORLD.

A rare and curious operation for the cure of lockjaw was performed on Friday in Corona by Dr. F. L. Johnson, Professor Albert C. Coombes, of the Post-Graduate Hospital, Manhattan, and Dr. Deanehard, of Manhattan, on Patrick Wakely, sixty-five years old. Mr. Wakely accidentally cut off the end of his finger several days ago, and applied such home remedies as cowhens and tobacco to staunch the flow of blood. The wound began to heal, but Wakely felt a numbness in his neck and throat on Tuesday. It grew worse, and when Dr. Johnson was called he at once diagnosed the case as lockjaw. At the consultation of the physicians it was decided that the only way in which the patient's life could be saved was by the injection of tetanus antitoxin into his brain. A hole was bored through Wakely's skull and the antitoxin was injected. It is now considered that Mr. Wakely is recovering. According to a statement made by Professor Coombes, this is the third operation of this sort that has been performed in the world. The other two were performed in Paris and New Jersey. Only a man of Mr. Wakely's strong constitution could probably have undergone the operation successfully. The operation would not have been successful, it is said, if the dreaded ninth day had been passed.

DEAF MUTES MARRIED.

THE CEREMONY PERFORMED BY DR. JOHN CHAMBERLIN IN THE SIGN LANGUAGE.

Miss Maria M. Robinson, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Robinson, of No. 117 Oak-st., was married to John B. Valles on Thanksgiving Eve, at the home of her parents. Both the bride and the groom are deaf-mutes, and the ceremony was performed in the sign language by the Rev. Dr. John Chamberlin, of St. Ann's Church for the Deaf, in Manhattan.

DORA MOLLER BROUGHT HOME.

SHE WAS FOUND WANDERING IN YONKERS ON FRIDAY EVENING.

Miss Dora Moller, of No. 24 Marlon-st., who was found wandering along Central-ave., Yonkers, on Friday evening by Policeman Henry Cooley, and given into the custody of her mother yesterday, and returned to their home in Brooklyn. The young woman appears to be suffering from a nervous or mental trouble. She had a number of music books with her when she was taken into custody for safe-keeping. She said she was a music teacher, and, after telling where she lived, refused to say anything further. The police learned that she left her home in Brooklyn on Friday morning to go downtown, and that she had been weak mentally for some time. They believe she wandered to Yonkers, not realizing what she was doing.

CORNERSTONE LAYING.

EX-MAYOR SCHIEREN TO MAKE THE PRINCIPAL ADDRESS.

Ex-Mayor Charles A. Schieren will make the principal address at the laying of the cornerstone of Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church, Lafayette-ave., near Broadway, this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The pastor, the Rev. H. S. Knabenschuh, will lay the cornerstone, and the ceremony will be made by the Rev. A. B. Steimle, the Rev. S. G. Welskotten and the Rev. D. W. Petersen.

THE CHAIN NOT BROKEN.

MISS SCHENCK STILL RECEIVES ABOUT A HUNDRED LETTERS A DAY.

Miss Nathalie Schenck, who in the war gained considerable fame through her remarkably successful endless chain for the Red Cross, still receives about one hundred letters a day at the postoffice in Babylon, Long Island. Frantic appeals were made by Miss Schenck to break the chain, and it was believed that she had succeeded in doing so. Between June 21 and October 21 over 20,000 letters were received, bringing in, it is estimated, about $3000. Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Morgan, the young woman's grandparents, with whom she lives, will close their country house this week and return to Manhattan.

NURSES TO BE GRADUATED.

THE ADDRESS TO BE BY THE REV. DANIEL H. OVERTON.

The twenty-eighth annual reception and graduation of nurses of the Brooklyn Maternity and New-York State Training School for Nurses will be held to-morrow evening, at 8 o'clock, at the hospital, at Washington-ave. and Douglass-st. The annual reports will be read, the Rev. Daniel H. Overton will make the address, and Miss Grace Demarest, soprano; James E. Richards and Charles Kellomaki, violinists; and Verum Rudolph Moore, cornetist, will render a musical programme. Dr. Edward W. Avery will preside.

THE BOAT FOUND: THE MAN MISSING.

Frederick D. Greenwood, who went hunting in a small boat on the Great South Bay last Monday, has not yet been heard from. His boat, however, was found on Friday near Bellmore. The old-time baymen think that the young man is still alive. The marshes and meadows where the young man hunted are to be thoroughly searched. Greenwood's home is in Macouset, near Reid-ave.
